RAISED

2025 David Getches Award Winner

Last year, the David Getches Award Winner was awarded to Barney White for his remarkable work protecting Colorado's rivers.

Barney was a water lawyer in Denver until his untimely passing in 2023 from cancer. His work is from the same mold as Colorado Water Trust's—he used the prior appropriation system to do good for the environment, while protecting local water user interests, all within the framework of Colorado water law.

Stay tuned for the announcement of this year's recipient!
